Thousands joined the programme Congress organized in Bhavnagar to give a call to Chief Minister to undertake genuine public welfare activities. Leader of Opposition Shaktisinh Gohil, who represents Bhavnagar in the State Assembly, said that he made plenty of promises to people of Bhavnagar, but did nothing to fulfill them.

He said that people of Bhavnagar were very angry over false promises of the CM and it was reflected in the presence of people at the Congress meeting. Now people have realized that CM was squandering public money for his personal publicity. He is working to promote interest of few favourite businessmen only, Gohil said.

Resources of Gujarat are being exploited for few while nothing is done for common man. Thus, he said, CM is working against interests of people of Gujarat.

Such is the public anger that congress venue of Jashonath chowk turned out to be small and crowd spilled over into neighbouring areas. Heads of different religions also gathered here.

CM had announced special measures for disabled, but has done nothing. As a result, on the world disabled day, there was an agitation by disabled. Congress supported the disabled with token gesture of ice cream to agitating physically challenged persons.
