Press Note

25th April, 2012

Union Tourism Minister Shri Subodh Kant Sahay today announced tourism project of Rs 10 crore for the tribal area of Narmada district at a function at Malsamot.

Malsamot, Ninay Water fall and Dev Mogra temple of Narmada district are important tourism sites. Gujarat government has not taken care of these spots. However, local Congress MLA Shri Amarsinh Vasava brought this to the notice of Shri Ahmed Patel who took it up with the Tourism Minister and ultimately the district got Rs 10 crore for these projects. Union Minister Shri Subodh Kant Sahay laid foundation stone of this 100 percent Central Project today. Leader of Opposition Shri Shaktisinh Gohil, MLA Shri Amarsinh Vasava, Shri Kamlesh Patel, Shri Anand Kumar, Shri Vipul Mitra and others were present at the function.

On this occasion Shri Subodh Kantji said that the project was cleared because of the insistence of Shri Ahmed Patel. He said that nothing more was needed to be done. He also gave details of the projects of Gujarat centre had cleared in the field of environment.

Speaking at the function Shri Gohil said that the UPA Government had released record money for tourism projects of Gujarat. Ambardi Wild Life Project has got Rs. 4.75 crore, 7.98 crore for the Integrated Development of Dwarka- Nageshwar bet, Rs 3.10 crore for Tarnetar in Surendranagar District, Rs 3.60 crore for Chapaner Pavagadh, Rs 7.33 crore for Dandi Circuit, Rs 46.50 crore for Shuklatirth Kabirvad and Angareshwar project totalling 86.14 crore have been cleared by the central government.

Gujarat government is favouring few industrialists, but doing nothing for common men and tribal. This project will benefit people of Narmada district a lot. Gohil expressed thanks to Shri Ahmed Patel for his initiative for people of Gujarat.
