Gohil blasts Modi for his utterances against Rahul Gandhi

The language Gujarat Chief Minister Narendra Modi has used for Rahul Gandhi is an insult of high values and traditions of Gujarat, Leader of Opposition in the state Assembly Shaktisinh Gohil said today. It is at a time when Gujarat has given warm welcome to Rahul Gandhi. This has created a kind of fear psychosis in the mind of the Chief Minister who meets only industrialists. He is using the language people use when they lose balance under fright, Gohil said.

Chief Minister, who loves to describe himself with capital I, should never forget that leaders of his party tried their best to bring in their family members in the politics. BJP leaders talk about culture, but they cannot nurse cultural values in their own children. Rahul Mahajan, son of late BJP leader Pramod Mahajan is the best case. Cultural values have always been in the Gandhi Nehru family and it is their tradition to serve the nation with the spirit of self less service.

In this time of recession Rahul has come here as a well wisher of Gujaratis. He is trying to understand the problem of people right from diamond workers to artisans of Kutch. Instead of thanking him, Modi has unleashed verbal abuse. This shows his mentality. It is like the language of Kans for Krishna and Hrinyakashyap for Prahlad.
